

Position: Crew Chief – Land Survey
Location: Indianapolis, IN
Start Date: Immediately

Job description

Having a passion for land surveying, working outdoors and civil / site development as well as having a great attitude and solid work ethic makes you a perfect fit for a Land Survey Crew Chief role at Weihe Engineers.

When you join our Land Survey department, you'll be working with a company who has offered these services since 1960. With such a history and excellent reputation, we're the preferred choice for professionals and clients alike. And, for that reason we're one of the most tenured land survey organizations in Indiana.

Why join Weihe Engineers? Before joining Weihe Engineers, many survey professionals shared disappointment with their income, not feeling appreciated or valued, frustration over chaotic workplace conditions, insufficient communication or direction, lack of internal support, inadequate work hours, lack of communication between internal disciplines, or suffering with outdated equipment and vehicles. If you're faced with any of this, we invite you to apply today.

At Weihe Engineers, you'll enjoy working with project managers with 20+ years of experience. Some of which have spent significant time in the field throughout their careers. That helps communication which improves efficiency and delivers the best product and timely delivery to our clients.

Our Requirements

- At least 5 years of relevant experience (site development projects is a plus)
- Secondary education preferred, not mandatory
- Use of standard industry surveying software, robotic total station and GPS equipment as well as Microsoft Office required
- Able to lift and carry 50 lbs., walk long distances over varied terrain and work in all seasonal climates

Your Skills

- Perform boundary and topographic surveys, and stake proposed improvements
- Ability to read construction plans
- Writing/interpreting land descriptions is a plus
- Office experience including AutoCAD drafting is a plus
- Excellent team communication skills
- Effectively collaborate in a cross-functional department environment
- Great attitude and solid work ethic
- Proven driving record

Your Compensation and Benefits

- Compensation is highly commensurate with experience
- Very competitive and robust benefits package available
- Opportunities for development and advancement
